

JANE LEONARDSON, MD

ASSOCIATE

Recent Work Experience

- Chief Medical Information Officer—University of Texas Medical Branch-Correctional Managed Care/Texas Tech University-Correctional Managed Care
2014-PRESENT
- Interim Medical Director, El Paso County Jail
2015-2016
- Lead Physician-US Antarctic Program at McMurdo Station, Antarctica 2010-2014
- Region III Medical Director; University of Texas Medical Branch-Correctional Managed Care; Oversight of both inpatient medical and mental health facilities.
2013-2014
- Interim Region III Medical Director-- University of Texas Medical Branch-Correctional Managed Care.
2011-2013
- Houston District Medical Director-- University of Texas Medical Branch-Correctional Managed Care.
2010-2011
- Medical Director Pam Lychner/Joe Kegans State Jails- University of Texas Medical Branch-Correctional Managed Care
2001-2013

Consulting:

Individual case reviews for California Attorney General's Office with working for J Allen- Correctional Healthcare Managements.
2014-2016

Expert Witness--Assistant State's Attorney Office, Maureen Hannon, Cook County Illinois
2014-2015

Education:

Degree: Bachelor of Arts
(Magna Cum Laude)
Year: 1984
School: Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois

Medical School:
North Western University, Chicago
Illinois
Year: 1988

Residency: Northwestern
University, Department of Medicine
Year: 1991

Certificates:

American Board of Preventive Medicine—
Diplomate in Clinical Informatics; October 2015

Certified Correctional Healthcare Provider
(NCCHC)-March 2014

Publications:

Baillargeon J, Pulvino JS,
Leonardson JE, Linthicum LC,
Penn J, Williams RS, Baillargeon
G, Murray OJ. The changing epidemiology of HIV in the criminal justice system. International Journal of STDs & AIDS (in press) 2017.

McQuillen, J., et al. NASA
Glenn Research Team,
NASA's microgravity
aircraft, the "Vomit
Comet" --"Mixing IV Fluids
in Microgravity"; Internal NASA publishing.